

PROPOSED NEW LAWS

Considered by the Legislative Committees.

AMENDMENTS TO GAME LAWS

Bill Extending the Time of Foreclosure of Mortgages Recommended for Passage.

SACRAMENTO, January 19.—The finance committee of the senate held an executive session this afternoon at which the bill appropriating $4000 for the erection of a monument to the memory of deceased Mexican war veterans was the only matter considered. The bill provides that a monument should be erected in the war veterans' plot in this city, and while the members of the committee were in accord with the spirit which it manifested at the introduction of the measure, each one agreed that to recommend the bill would be to establish a bad precedent, as there are many localities which are clamoring for appropriations for the same purpose. It was finally decided to report adversely on the bill.

The senate judiciary committee decided this afternoon by majority vote to support senate bill 333 favoring the bill was introduced by Senator Bolla and is popularly known as the Torreyes land act. The purpose of the bill is to simplify the law relating to transfers of land, eliminating the complex features of the common law which now obtain. The assembly committee on municipal corporations held a long discussion on bill 333, introduced by DeWitt Clinton, which proposes to legalize the acts of municipal corporations whether or not they had been legally or properly organized. A majority of the committee voted to recommend the bill for favorable passage.

The assembly committee on fish and game, Chairman Strain, decided this afternoon to report favorably on the bill appropriating $1000 for the purchase or construction of a gasoline launch for the board of fish commissioners. A substitute was provided by the committee, regarding punishment for violation of the game laws. A substitute for the bill of DeWitt Clinton and Johnson relating to salmon fishing will also be reported. Attorney C. B. Keane of San Francisco appeared before the assembly committee on claims this afternoon to report favorably on the petition of Chauvin's bill to pay Maria county for trials and requests made necessary by outbreaks in San Quentin. The committee claimed is $432.10. Assemblyman Chauvin made an earnest appeal for his measure, saying that the bill should be passed without delay, as it was imperative that such trials be held in Maria county, and that the time of the bill had been consumed irrespective of the expense incurred. The bill was laid over for further consideration, but will probably be reported favorably.

The assembly committee on retrenchment, Chairman Melick, met this afternoon. At the morning session Chairman Melick introduced a resolution asking that his committee be given power to subpoena witnesses, take evidence and send for the necessary records for the purpose of investigating the public expenses. The house refused to suspend the rules and the resolution was referred to the committee on retrenchment. The committee decided to take it back to the house tomorrow for adoption.

Chapman's bill regulating the number of attaches for temporary organization was considered, but there was some doubt as to the measure's proposition, and the measure was laid over.

Bridgeford's resolution asking for a committee to investigate the state printing office was made a special order for tomorrow evening. The committee will not be appointed.

The judiciary committee of the assembly, Chairman Wayne, met this afternoon and recommended the passage of Dillie's bill giving certain rights to colored people. The bill provides that all classes, no matter what their color or nationality, shall have equal privileges in street cars, theaters, hotels and restaurants.

Shanahan's bill extending the time of foreclosure of mortgages from six to twelve months was also recommended for passage.

CHARGED WITH MURDER.

William McLeod Arrested for Killing His Wife. SAN FRANCISCO, January 19.—William McLeod, a caulker living in the outskirts of the city, is under arrest, charged with the murder of his wife. Last week Mrs. McLeod had her husband arrested for causing her. The case was heard in the police court today and was postponed until next week.

McLeod, who was released on bail, went to his home where he found his wife and Mrs. Bates, a friend. He commenced to abuse his wife and seized her by the throat. She broke from his grasp and rushed into a neighbor's house, where she was taken to the hospital. McLeod claims to have no recollection of what occurred and says his wife was subject to heart disease.

Mrs. McLeod's first husband was named Nix and she formerly lived in Montana. She had been married to McLeod ten years.

NEW GOVERNORS.

Inaugurations in Delaware and Texas. DORCH, Del., January 19.—Governor-elect Tunnell was inaugurated promptly at noon today. The ceremonies took place in the courthouse in the presence of the members of the senate, house of representatives and the constitutional convention. After the oath of office had been administered Governor Tunnell delivered a brief address.

AMSTERDAM, Jan., January 19.—Governor Charles A. Culberson and Lieutenant George T. Jester were inaugurated at noon today, there being an immense crowd on the streets without the ceremony notwithstanding the fact that a drizzling rain fell all morning.

THE ATCHISON'S OFFER.

Terms Proposed to the Atlantic & Pacific Road.

NEW YORK, January 19.—The terms of the proposition that has been made by the Atchison railroad to the holders of the 4 per cent guaranteed trust gold bonds of the Atlantic & Pacific railroad, to purchase the $10,000,000 first mortgage 6 per cent western division bonds of the last named company are officially announced as follows:

The Atchison will give 53 1/2 percent of the par value of the bonds in Atchison general mortgage bonds, carrying the April, 1897, coupon; 6 1/2 per cent in Atchison preferred stock, in all $1,000,000 Atchison bonds and $2,500,000 preferred stock.

The purchase also assumes the net floating debt of the reorganization, amounting to about $1,200,000, and will pay the expenses of foreclosure and reorganization, and will assist the reorganization committee in obtaining control of the central division in case they decide not to foreclose the mortgage.

In return the Atchison reserves the western division bonds and is to be released from all liability upon the guaranteed trust bonds, the pending suits being discontinued or assigned. The Atlantic & Pacific reorganization committee will retain possession of $2,740,000 first mortgage 6 per cent bonds of the central division and retain one-sixth of the equipment on the western division for use on the central division.

WEYLER TAKES THE FIELD

Preparing to Push Eastward to Meet Gomez.

HAVANA, January 19.—At 8 o'clock this morning Captain-General Weyler, accompanied by his son, aide-de-camp, Chief of Staff Escobedo, Colonel Dandago, Governor Ponce and the chief of police left the palace in a coach, going by the high way to Luyane and escorted by the squadrons of cavalry. It is thought the Captain-General's intention is to concentrate the Spanish forces on the outskirts of this city and it is believed to advance with their network of telegraph lines to connect Havana with the island, to push eastward to meet the insurgent army under Maximo Gomez. The opponents of General Weyler have been active in Havana, but without having accomplished anything definite towards the pacification of the island his recall will follow almost immediately.

Principle said that Senora Cabrera Varin, the widow of the insurgent leader Miramira, and Senora Eva Adan, wife of the insurgent leader A. J. Rodriguez, have been taken to the island of Pinar del Rio by the governor of the province. Rodriguez is a naturalized American citizen. The women are charged with being compromised in a political conspiracy.

MEMORIAL TO CONGRESS.

Mass Meeting in the Interest of the Nicaragua Canal.

SAN FRANCISCO, January 19.—The Nicaragua canal mass meeting called by the chamber of commerce was held this afternoon. Mayor Phelan presided. A memorial was presented and adopted by which congress was asked to pass the present Nicaragua canal bill, "thus providing for our country and the commercial world a waterway between the two great oceans, and to the benefit of the people of this country and the world without discrimination."

REJECTED BY MINERS.

Managers' Proposition Not Acceptable to Strikers.

LEADVILLE, Col., January 19.—The final proposition of the mine managers to the striking miners of this district, which was approved by Governor Adams and E. V. Debs, was tonight rejected by the miners. The vote in their favor was 100 to 10. The managers' proposition was almost unanimously rejected. The miners' proposition was accepted by the miners, and the strike was ended.

NO CHOICE.

Kansas Populists Unable to Nominate for Senator.

TOWNE, Kans., January 19.—After taking twenty-four ballots tonight for United States senator, the Populist caucus of the Kansas legislature adjourned at midnight until tomorrow night without making a choice. Senator Peffer and Chairman Bridenbach are clearly out of the race and the popular candidate is L. E. King, of Dawley county, ex-Congressman W. A. Harris, of Lincoln, and Ed. O. Little of Abilene, ex-member of the legislature. The last ballot tonight stood: King 45, Harris 32, Little 22, Bridenbach 3, Peffer 2, scattering 7. The three leaders have clearly had the way, each ballot changing their relative positions, but most of them giving the highest vote to King. It takes 54 votes to nominate.

Jones Re-elected in Arkansas.

LETTICE ROCK, January 19.—The senate and house balloted separately for United States senator today with the result that Senator James K. Jones was re-elected by an overwhelming majority. The ten Populists cast their votes for J. R. Sovereign, and the three Republicans for General Forrest Clayton. The joint session will meet tomorrow and formally elect Senator Jones.

Nevada for Jones.

ONRON, January 19.—There is no change in the aspect of the senatorial fight. John P. Jones will be the next United States senator. It is understood that the three that voted for Nixon in caucus last night will cast their votes next Tuesday for Jones also. Nixon is not on the scene.

CONGRESSIONAL NEWS

Turpie Opposes the Nicaragua Canal Bill.

A BEGGAR AMONG ENTERPRISES

Fifty-two of the Nine Hundred Pension Bills on the House Calendar Disposed Of.

WASHINGTON, January 19.—The session of the senate today was without incident. Senator Turpie spoke against the Nicaragua canal bill.

Mr. Turpie said the history of the concessions and attempts to construct the canal were mentioned; all such attempts had failed. There was nothing extraordinary in this bill which would insure the success of the project. The enormous profits to be gained from the successful operation of the canal had been spoken of. Not a financier in any part of the world would consider the design. This, he said, was an outcast, a beggar among enterprises. No private money would be invested in it, although it had been widely advertised the world over. The stocks and bonds of the construction company, if the appropriation was made, would have no commercial value. The stock of the Maritime Nicaragua Canal Company, depending for value upon the completion of the project, would be worthless. The fund for the Panama canal scheme of De Lesseps were raised by levy upon the plain people of France. Their crudelity was followed by failure. This was the fourth time that the project had been tried in one thing. Neither DeWitt Clinton, Vanderbilt nor Kelley had asked the government aid. This is the first time an insolvent company has asked congress for $100,000,000 to carry on a project which cannot be completed. They wanted the money on general principles.

The projectors had asked for an act of incorporation from congress. They had represented that there would be no difficulty in disposing of bonds. London and Paris were thirsting for them. Upon that understanding the company was incorporated. The government was to be in no way responsible.

From the inception the project was discredited. The three signatory powers to the concession distinctly disclaimed responsibility, either direct or by guarantee. He was not in favor of making reimbursement for money spent when it was shown that four times the necessary amount had been sunk. It was robbery. He questioned the right of the government to guarantee the note of a citizen of the United States as was sought to be done now. The constitution did not authorize such action.

Only once have we guaranteed the note of citizens, in the case of the Pacific Mailway company, who owe us $100,000,000. Would it not be well, he asked, to wait until we received that before guaranteeing other such bonds? There was a great similarity between the two projects and he feared the outcome would be the same, a loss to the government.

If built, the speaker said, should be built by authority of congress by the secretary of war. If it is ever constructed a military force will have to be stationed there to protect it from public enemies and private malice. It will be a military and strategic point. How could this be reconciled with private ownership? Of the eleven directors, seven were private men, while the other four might be impartial.

Before closing Mr. Turpie stated that he had discovered that the government had not guaranteed the bonds of the Pacific Mailway company. The government had issued its own bonds and taken those of the company in exchange. Mr. Turpie announced that he would continue upon the subject of the canal tomorrow.

HOUSE.

WASHINGTON, January 19.—The old soldiers had a field day in the house today. Under a special order adopted yesterday the whole day was devoted to the consideration of private pension bills. Of the 900 on the calendar 92 were disposed of during the five hours' session.

The Oregon Deadlock.

SALMON, Ore., January 19.—The deadlock in the house still continues, and the Populist minority is still as determined as ever. They say the only solution of the question is for the Republicans to allow Jonathan Bourne to be elected speaker.

SENATOR FAIR'S LETTERS.

Suit to Recover the Documents Commenced.

SAN FRANCISCO, January 19.—The litigation over the new famous Fair-Child letters began today when Charles Fair told how he had obtained possession of the documents. This was by paying $100 for the letters to Detective Stillwell, who was supposed to pay it in turn to Jerome Caldwell.

The late Senator Fair wrote 115 letters to his friend Jerome Caldwell during the last thirty years of his life. In many of these documents the private affairs of numerous persons well known on the coast, were discussed with remarkable freedom. Caldwell was ready to sell the letters for $2500 but agreed to take $100, or a little less than a dollar apiece, for the lot. According to Mr. Fair's sworn statement, he paid $100 to Detective Stillwell, who was negotiating the purchase, and received the letters together with a typewritten copy thereof. Suddenly word was brought against Fair for the recovery of the letters and in the complaint that was filed was a copy of every letter furnished by Stillwell to the attorneys for Fair.

Fair testified that he engaged Stillwell and that the latter went to Los Angeles and bought the letters for $100. Fair gave the money to Stillwell, procuring the latter in turn paid Caldwell.

COONEY'S EXAMINATION.

The Court Ordered the Original Deeds Produced.

SAN FRANCISCO, January 19.—At the preliminary examination today of ex-Notary Public J. J. Cooney, charged with perjury in connection with the Fair estate litigation, the court declined to permit the introduction of photographic copies of the pencil deeds in evidence, requiring Mr. Cooney to produce the originals, which his attorneys were unwilling to do.

The principal witness was W. E. Stanford, clerk for H. S. Crocker Company, publishers and printers, who testified that on January 8, 1896, he ordered 10,000 blank notary certificates to be printed, these blanks having numbers and other identifying marks. The notation will try to show that one of these certificates, bearing Fair's acknowledgment to the Crocker deeds, bears Cooney's notarial certificate dated September, 1894.

A MISSING HEIRESS.

EFFORTS TO FIND SHEEP KING ASHBROOK'S DAUGHTER.

She Received a Father's Curses and Promise of Disinheritance.

CHICAGO, January 19.—Fred Ashbrook, a millionaire sheep owner of Melbourne, Australia, died in 1886 and left his estranged daughter Edith one-third of his vast estate. The heiress is supposed to live in Chicago or its vicinity, and the relatives are trying to find her. Announcement of Ashbrook's death and the disposition of his property was made in a communication received today by attorneys for correspondents at Melbourne who have the estate in charge.

The estate of the sheep king, as Ashbrook was known, is estimated to be worth at least $2,500,000. Two daughters beside the missing Edith are the beneficiaries.

The story of Miss Edith's leaving home and her estrangement from her family is romantic. In spite of parental objection she married the man she loved and received a father's curses and promise of disinheritance.

But the latter proved to be as now develops, never fulfilled. In 1880 Edith Ashbrook, then 18 years old, met and loved Edward Townsend, an American civil engineer, at a ball in Melbourne.

After a few months' courtship Townsend proposed and was accepted by the girl, but the parent would not sanction the union. The girl, however, married Townsend.

The following year Townsend and his bride left Melbourne, going to San Francisco, where for a while he was employed on one of the morning papers. In 1886 the couple went to Port Townsend, Wash., and later to Portland, Ore., where Townsend is said to have died of pneumonia. With her child Mrs. Townsend has moved from one place to another supporting herself and child as best she could. Two years ago she received from Melbourne the news that her father had died and she was employed as a clerk in one of the big department stores in Chicago. That was the last heard of her.
